

SHERREE CHAUDHRY

Treasurer | KWT Committee

Sherree is a proud and strong Gunditjmara woman from southwest Victoria, wife and mother of three daughters and a grandson.

She is committed to her family and to the strong Aboriginal community of Heywood. Sherree works in the family violence space and is passionate about providing support to women, children, and men to reduce the violence and is currently studying a Graduate Certificate in Domestic Violence Responses.

Sherree is a founding member of KWT since the initial stages of Towards a Justice Society Fund meeting with partners of Woor-Dungin and Alumni of the Fellowship of Indigenous Leadership to create Victoria's First Nations Philanthropic Fund.

Sherree is passionate about supporting grassroots First Nations communities across Victoria to understand the space of philanthropic giving.

In 2019, Sherree was the recipient of the Grassroots Community Connections Award from the Fellowship of Indigenous Leadership in recognition of her passion to engage and build self-care activities for women. Sherree collaborated with others to establish the Heywood Deadlies Running Group which addresses health and mental wellness.

